

Karen Bongrain

NATURE LOVER

ABOUT MISS KAREN

- Karen has spent the past five years in South Africa teaching local & international kids English and the importance of protecting our environment, utilising nature as her classroom.
- She believes in the value of leveraging education to develop confident and passionate citizens, particularly through experiential learning.

EXPERIENCE & QUALIFICATIONS

- Karen has extensive experience in teaching English with a conservation focus and was most recently involved in creating educational content to fight food waste in HK.
- Bachelors in Sustainability and Environmental Management
- Masters in Ecology, Evolution and Conservation
- Certificate in Early Childhood Development

